THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

50X1-HUM

1. Chef Inspekteur Wulz is now responsible for all discipline. He is also in charge of the five Leitstellen. He has called a meeting of VPS and VPB leaders in Berlin for 18 and 19 March 1950. The main topic for discussion will be deserters.

50X1-HUM

2. Polizeirat Bertsch has been transferred from Gloewen to take over Abt. Waffen u. Geräte. This move has been occasioned by the arrest of the departmental chief, Schomburg, and by the suspension of his deputy, Goeckel.

50X1-HUM

3. 150 SISS 3-ton trucks have been sent from Russia for use by the HVA. They are at present in transit, but are expected daily at Frankfurt/Oder. These will be the first of a consignment of 500.

50X1-HUM

4. Delivery of 55 BMW passenger cars is also expected in the near future. Of these, 24 are to go to the Ministerium für Staatssicherheit, 13 are to be divided among the VPS and 18 are to remain at the disposal of the HVA. These BMWs were originally intended for export, but have not reached the standard necessary for export goods due to technical faults in the gears.

50X1-HUM

5. The HVA have been promised delivery of 100 DKWs during 1950. 25 are due by the end of the first quarter. Until now none have arrived, but three are due to be collected from Zwickau in the week 12-18 March.

50X1-HUM

6. 200 BMW motorcycles were also promised to the HVA for the first quarter of this year. The number was later reduced to 119. An officer of Hptabt. Intendantur recently visited Kerber to see whether he could arrange for the motorcycles to be collected and was told that he would be lucky if he obtained even the odd nineteen. To date, he has received none.

50X1-HUM

7. A Waffenmeister- u. Sportschule is to be opened in Dobrilugk. It is expected that courses will be for groups of up to 150 men for training in weapons and 120 men for sports at any one time.
